CHINESE EMPEROR KILLED BY BRIGANDS

That is the Way the Old Dowager Empress Will Announce It.

THAT EARLY AND COMPLETE SETTLEMENT CABLED ONCE MORE

The Embassadors and all Their Hangers-on Studying How to Prolong Their Soft Snap at Pekin—Want the Negotiations Transferred to the Peace Arbitrators.

LONDON, June 17.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Globe learns in Chinese quarters that the Dowager Empress proposes when the court reaches Kai Fong Fu, in Ho Nan, to announce that the Emperor has been killed by brigands and that Prince Tuan's son has succeeded to the throne. The Dowager Empress will then establish the new capital at Kai Fong Fu.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A cablegram from Commissioner Rockhill confirms dispatches from Pekin to the effect that an early and complete decision on the indemnity question is expected on the basis of the proposition variously known as the American-British and British-American.

NEW YORK, June 17.—A special to the Times from Washington says: There has been some interesting talk at the Department of State about arbitration suggested by the decision of the United States not to press the arbitration of the Hague court the question of the amount of the indemnity to be exacted by the powers from China and the other question of the proposed loan guarantee.

At the time Mr. Rockhill requested authority to suggest this course it seemed to be a very proper subject to submit to the court and an indication of confidence in the principle of arbitration. But some considerations have arisen that took away from the prospect some of the attractiveness at first revealed.

To submit the question to the court of arbitration would have required stipulations to agree to the findings of the court, both as to the amount of indemnity and the method of securing its payment. That would possibly have called upon the United States to become a joint guarantor, which the administration does not desire, not because it objected to go in with guarantees with poorer credit than that of the United States but for the more important reason that joint action would be obnoxious to the national policy. Having once departed from a traditional policy that permits cooperation but not joint action.

A Political War Brought on By Speculators and Gamblers—Another Report That Lord Pauncefoot May Retire From the Washington Embassy

NEW YORK, June 17.—The situation in South Africa is far from satisfactory just now for Englishmen, says the Tribune's London correspondent. It is believed that the Boers are gaining many recruits from the Dutch districts of Cape Colony and in spite of Mr. Chamberlain's calm assertion that the embers of war are only smoldering, it looks very much as if they had burst into flame.

Lanes Thirty Miles Wide Have Been Mapped Out.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Safe steamer lanes across the Pacific Ocean have been established under the plan proposed by the Navy Department a year ago, says a Herald special from Washington.

These lanes are 30 miles wide. Reports received by Captain C. C. Todd, hydrographer of the Navy from 60 commanders of warships, government transports and merchant steamers, show that not a single menace to navigation exists within the limits of the tracks plotted by the department.

The lanes across the Pacific connect San Francisco with Honolulu, Guam and Manila; San Francisco with Nagasaki, Port Sound ports with Nagasaki and Honolulu and Guam with Nagasaki. Exporters and steamship men on the Pacific Coast purpose to use their influence to secure
